

This Year's Visitors

Chuck Fleming

Superb fiddle player, ex-champion string band, ex-J.S.D. band, accompanied Alistair Anderson

Dave Bulmer & Friends

Irish ceilidh band led by Sean McGuire's friend and accompanist

John & Phil Cunningham

Breathtaking fiddle and accordion brothers — led Silly Wizard to glory — magic

Arizona Smoke Revue

One of Britain's top folk bands — play a variety of music, mainly traditional

Janet Russell

A singer from Edinburgh — no relation to Jane — from Fife originally

This Year's Locals

This is what the Shetland Festival is all about — it's a celebration of the astonishing wealth of quality local musicians.

Nowhere else in the world can you find such a concentration of talent — old and young. Without them there couldn't be a Festival — our thanks to Tom Anderson and Willie Johnson (celebrating their 50th year together), Rhoda, Maggie, Curly Jamieson, Trevor Hunter and the Shetland Fiddlers, Henry Henderson, Fridarey, Hom Bru, Debbie Scott, Davie and Jenny, Charlie and Elaine, Eddie Barclay, Ivor Polson and John Hutchison, Mid Yell Lasses, Robbie Pearson, Ian Nicolson, Laura Malcolmson, the rest — and all the bands

This Year's Visitors

Charlie McKerron

Golden Fiddle Award winner 1983 — a college student busy with TV, radio and personal appearances

Old Hickory

Four-piece Glasgow based band playing mainly American bluegrass

Sara Grey & Ellie Ellis

Singing duo from North America, play banjo, guitar, dulcimer and wing psaltery

Colin Dewar

17-year-old from Fife — Junior Scottish accordion champion 1982. Scottish dance band winner at Perth 1983 — his band won the Ronnie Cooper Memorial Trophy

Willie Simpson

Senior Scottish Fiddle Champion 1982, a farmer from Perthshire

Arthur Pottinger

Orkney's weather man and one of the finest ballad singers around

The Fabulous Salami Brothers

A slice of fresh air — include fire-eating among their many talents

Boroughloch Trio

Davey Tulloch, Veronique, plus Dave — a virtuoso folk trio

Tony Corcoran

One of the north-east of England's top fiddlers — comes recommended by Davey Tulloch
