

Extra Festival Events

In addition to all the ticketed events that are listed in this booking form, the Shetland Folk Festival Society organises a number of additional events so that an even greater proportion of our community can access the culture and entertainment on offer.

We are extremely thankful to BP and Sullom Voe Partners for the support they provide towards the Private Additional Support Needs Concert at Bells Brae Primary School on Friday the 29th.

The Robertson Trust and Vic Thomas have provided support towards the Private Music Session at the Eric Gray Resource Centre and the Playgroup Concert at the Clickimin Centre (attendance organised by the Association of Shetland Playgroups)

For SFFS Members, there is also a number of free events held in the Festival Club including the following workshops:

Banjo:	Saturday, 12:30-1:15pm	Drumming:	Saturday, 1:00-1:45pm
Bohdran:	Saturday, 12:30-1:15pm	Shetland Fiddle:	Saturday, 1:30-2:15pm
Dancing:	Sunday from 12noon

There will also be a Youth Event between 2-4pm on Saturday and well as scheduled and informal sessions.

Scotland's Islands Project

To celebrate the year of Scotland's Islands, we have secured funding for a one-off travelling showcase of brilliant island musicians. From Orkney Wrigley and The Reel, from the Western Isles Eilidh Mackenzie & Band and representing Shetland Ryan Couper & Tim Edey. After a performance at the Shetland Hotel on Thursday 28th, they will go on to perform at opposite ends of Shetland with concerts in Haroldswick and Fair Isle. On Sunday, all participating musicians will perform as one act in the Foy events. Shetland's Adam Johnson will also join them on Thursday night at the Shetland Hotel.

Festival Club - Sponsored by Delta Marine

Islesburgh Community Centre, Lerwick

Entry to the Club will be restricted to 2011 SFFS wristband-wearing members.

The Festival Club is a hive of activity all weekend. It's the place to be if you are interested in meeting and greeting Festival artistes, listening to and/or playing in sessions or participating in the various workshops on offer. The free opening concert on the Thursday, open to all, gives a real taster of what's ahead and there will be a number of late night sessions that are simply too good to be missed.

During the Festival, look out for further entertainment details in Islesburgh's reception area and keep an eye on the Festival website (www.shetlandfolkfestival.com) for updates.

Food is served daily in the Blue Rock Café. Times will be displayed in the Festival Club.

The premises are licensed.

Downstairs Bar

A cans, bottles and nips bar will be open downstairs during late night peak times

Valhalla Real Ale Bar

Sponsored by Streamline Shipping Group

A Real Ale Bar, offering a variety of local and national ales will be situated in Room 12 alongside the main bar.

Merchandise

31st Festival merchandise and the official programme will be on sale during the Festival in the Club.

Please note Artistes' merchandise will only be sold from the venues that they are performing at.

Thanks

Many sponsors and individuals have contributed towards the success of the 31st Shetland Folk Festival and our full gratitude is expressed in the official Festival programme.

Festival News and Reviews

For full coverage of the 31st Shetland Folk Festival make sure you log on to The Shetland Times website. You can also follow the build up to the big event and read all the reviews when it is over in our print edition, which comes out every Friday morning.

Visiting Artistes

Fuller biographies to be found in this year's official Festival Programme and on the Festival website

☐ Genticorum - Firmly rooted in the soil of their native Quebec, this energetic and original power trio also incorporates the dynamism of contemporary North American and European folk cultures into their sound.

☐ Findlay Napier & The Bar Room Mountaineers - leading the Scottish new-folk revolution with anthemic tales of love, debauchery and sin laced with black humour.

☐ The Shee - comprised of an exceptional all-female powerhouse lineup, their diverse range of individual musical influences combine to produce an adventurous brew of Folk, Scots, Gaelic and Bluegrass.

☐ SVER - supercharged dance tunes, extrovert stage presence and a wicked humour are all part of the mix from the Swedish/Norwegian quintet. Making their UK debut.

☐ Beltaine - One of the most interesting and exciting Polish groups on the folk music scene today, carving their own unique, funky and fired up sound by mixing traditional Celtic music with a modern twist.

☐ L'Angelus - Expert musicians, incredible singers and topnotch live entertainers, L'Angelus combines the best of Louisiana's music traditions.

☐ Pokey LaFarge & The South City Three - Bring some 'Riverboat Soul' into your life with this St.Louis act bringing a creative mix of early jazz, string ragtime, country blues and western swing.

☐ Oonagh Derby Band - a relative newcomer to the music industry whose style has been developed "around the kitchen table" influenced by old Irish Tales and Ballads fused with modern tastes in Blues, Swing and Jazz.

☐ Gerry O'Connor & Gino Lupari - No strangers to Shetland, Gerry 'Banjo' O'Connor and Gino Lupari will also be teaming up as a duo for the Festival, as well as appearing with the Oonagh Derby Band.

☐ Breabach - One of the most inventive and diverse bands to have emerged from the Scottish folk scene in recent years they were shortlisted in the best band category of the prestigious 2011 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

☐ Harald Hugaard Quartet feat. Helene Blum - bringing his trio to Shetland including multi award winning singer Helene Blum - a husband and wife team who are two of Denmark's most exported and multi award-winning musical names.

☐ Chris Newman Trio - No stranger to Shetland, 2011 sees a welcome return for English guitarist Chris Newman who learned from people such as Stéphane Grappelli and Diz Disley in his teens.

☐ The Wilders - This 'hillbilly hurricane' of a band, from Kansas City, have a number of accolades under their belt. Their repertoire extends from haunting songs of regret to honky-tonk and seriously spicy rockabilly.

☐ Fred Morrison Trio - One of Celtic music's most profoundly skilled exponents known for his unique and highly improvisational style which combines the Gaelic piping tradition of South Uist with contemporary and eclectic influences.

☐ Knerten & Co. - Our leading session act, this 5 piece plays traditional Norwegian folk music with copious amounts of humour and energy.

☐ Statsraad Lehmkul Musicians - On Thursday night a range of acts from Nordmore and Torshus Folkehøgskole (Folkhighschool) will be showcased including their choir, student jazz bands Ja'as & NOFO Jazz quartet as well as 'T for 3'. NOFO Shanty group will also perform music inspired by the way of life onboard the Statsraad Lehmkul!

☐ Wrigley and The Reel - The internationally acclaimed fiddle and guitar duo from Orkney, twin sisters Hazel and Jennifer Wrigley are joined by accordionist Billy Peace and leading bass player Ian Mackay.

☐ Eilidh Mackenzie & Band - From Lewis, Eilidh Mackenzie was given the honour of Gaelic Singer of the Year at the Trad Awards in December 2010 and will be joined by Gordon Gunn, Marc Clement and Ged Grimes for the Scotland's Islands project.

☐ Ryan Couper & Tim Edey - Shetland's multi-instrumentalist Ryan Couper is going to be joined by honorary islander for the weekend, Tim Edey from Kent who is a master of no less than ten instruments and a highly in demand session musician. Shetland's Adam Johnson will also appear on Thursday night.
